WILLIAM BULL, Eſquire, lieutenant-governor and commander in chief, in and over his Majeſty's ſaid province, and vice-admiral of the ſame.

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the general aſſembly now ſtands adjourned to the tenth day of September next, after which the term of their continuance will in a few days expire: And whereas it is neceſſary, for his Majeſty's ſervice, that a new aſſembly ſhould be ſoon called, I do therefore iſſue this my proclamation for diſſolving the general aſſembly, and the general aſſembly of this province is accordingly diſſolved.

Given under my hand and the great ſeal of his Majeſty's ſaid province, at Charles-Town, the thirty firſt day of Auguſt, 1765, and in the fifth year of his Majeſty's reign.

WILLIAM BULL.

By His Honour's Command,
GEO. JOHNSTON, Dep. Secry.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON, JUNE 29.

THE Duke of York arrived at Amſterdam on the 24th of this month, and was complimented by lieutenant admiral Schryver, and by M. Boreel, the Fiſcal of the admiralty, (who was ſome time ſince ambaſſador from the republic to the court of London) beſides ſeveral other perſons of diſtinction. His Royal Highneſs, after ſeeing the moſt remarkable things in that city, ſupped with Mr. Boreel, and went the next day to Saandam, to ſee the docks, &c. where he went on board the admiralty yacht; on which occaſion all the veſſels which were then lying in the river Y diſplayed their colours, at night his royal highneſs returned to Amſterdam, and the next day ſet out for Utrecht, from whence he will continue his route to Loo, to pay a viſit to the Stadtholder.

Yeſterday there was a levee at St. James's, and afterwards there was a council.

It is confidently reported that the Earl of Drogheda has reſigned all places in Ireland.

It is ſaid the Jeſuits have offered Paſchal Paoli the ſum of one million of French livres, for leave to ſettle and erect a college and ſeminary on the iſland of Corſica.

JULY 1.

On monday laſt they began to pull down the Crown-Inn at Ware, the oldeſt in the county of Hertford, for a gentleman's ſeat to be built on the ſpot: This is the inn where the remarkable large bed was, wherein, it is ſaid, twenty-ſix butchers and their wives lay (one night for a wager) in the year 1680, when King William came to the crown; it was of late uſed for lodging of ſoldiers.

Some letters from Paris inſinuate, that a coldneſs has for ſome time paſt been pretty viſible between a certain ambaſſador and the court of Verſailles.

It is remarked, that ſo few and ſo ſmall are the orders from America for our manufactures and goods, that the ſhips lately ſailed thither have not had half their ladings. And it is the univerſal complaint throughout the kingdom, that trade in general is manifeſtly upon the decline.

The herring fiſhery has begun remarkably ſucceſsful this ſeaſon in the firth of Clyde; inſomuch that the Glaſgow merchants write, that they expect to be among the firſt at Hamburgh and the Mediterranean markets.

Saturday morning his royal highneſs the duke of Cumberland had conference with his Majeſty at Richmond. And the ſame after- with the duke of Newcaſtle, at Windſor Lodge. And on y morning again with his Majeſty at Richmond.

rday the hon. Mr. Yorke, late attorney-general, had the ho- long conference with his Majeſty at the Queen's palace.

rs from Berlin, of the 22d paſt, it is aſſured, that the fa- mily of Brunſwick were expected at Potſdam the 10th at Charlottenbourg the 13th; at the laſt mentioned place the prince royal of Pruſſia with the princeſs Elizabeth are to be ſolemnized on the 14th inſtant.

ned there are, at this time, near 600 Juſtices in the f Weſtminſter, and county of Middleſex, whereas, me perſons now living, there were ſcarce ten in excluſive of Weſtminſter; which ſhows how ſineſs is of late years increaſed noon, and not before, the Right Hon. Earl houſe in Pall Mall, for his ſeat at Stowe in a change of miniſters is entirely at an end; and the occaſion reported, is, that the Favourite's influence, by other hands, was to continue in the ſame abſolute manner that has been manifeſted to all the world, ſince his acceſſion to power. And it is alſo ſaid, that thoſe, who are the real and true friends of their country, have unanimouſly diſclaimed any kind of connection with him or his people.

It was on Friday ſaid that another negotiation was ſet on foot with another body, or rather two bodies of men, ſuppoſed to be not quite ſo firm againſt the Favourite; but this morning it was reported to be entirely broken off: they alſo having refuſed to enliſt under the ſtandard of the Favourite.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, Lord Temple, Mr. Pitt, and Mr. Grenville, had a long conference together on wednesday laſt.

It is now confidently reported, that the late extraordinary councils were not ſo much confined to the intended changes in the Miniſtry, as they regarded ſome very important diſpatches received from the continent, the ſubject of which is kept a profound ſecret, though it is whiſpered, that certain ſyſtems dangerous to the balance of power, and general liberties of Europe, have, for ſome time paſt, been actually negotiating in the cabinet councils of our natural and inveterate enemy.

It is now ſaid his royal highneſs the duke of Glouceſter will ſet out on a tour thro' the weſt of England, this week, and that his highneſs will ſtay ſome little time at Exeter, in his way to Mount Edgecombe, the ſeat of the right hon. lord Edgecombe. We alſo hear that Prince Henry Frederic will accompany him.

The inſult offered to a great perſonage in the law at Weſtminſter hall, on Wedneſday laſt, it is ſaid, was as follows: a diſpute having happened between the ſaid perſon and another gentleman of eminence, the latter ſent him a challenge, whilſt he was in court, in conſequence of which he went out; the affair was to have been determined in Hide Park, but getting wind, was happily put a ſtop to.

They write from Paris, that a very large ſum of money remitted home by one of their Weſt-India governors, has been ſtopt on a charge ſent over that the ſame had been extorted from the King's ſubjects by an illegal exertion of power.

It is reported, that if a certain popular Gentleman ſhould come again into office, ſeveral new regulations will take place; particularly, 1. A diſſolution of the preſent parliament, and a future eſtabliſhment of triennial ones. 2. A renewal of the treaty with the King of Pruſſia, who will be allowed his expences from the time of our making peace, to that of his concluſion of the war. 3. A declaration, that General Warrants are illegal. 4. That the late Cyder Act, ſo far as it ſubjects the makers to Exciſe Laws will be repealed.

JULY 2.

We hear that a treaty of a peculiar nature is now on the carpet, between our court and the republic of Genoa.

We are credibly informed, that during the late expectation of a change in the Miniſtry, a perſon of diſtinction at the weſt end of the town put upwards of ten thouſand pounds in his pocket by a dextrous management of his property in the funds.

By late accounts from the Hague we learn, that advice had been received from Loo, that the Duke of York arrived there ſafely on the 25th paſt, and, after dining with the Prince Stadtholder, his Royal Highneſs continued his route for Germany.

We hear, that on the firſt ult. the Engliſh colours were hoiſted on the caſtle in the Iſle of man, and that the inhabitants had to the 20th to ſhip off their effects; and from the 20th to the 1ſt of July, to enter all ſuch as remained on the iſland, ſubject to the ſame duties as goods imported into England; that all ſuch as were not entered as aforeſaid, were liable to be ſeized. It is ſaid upwards of 70 tons of different kinds of teas were ſhipped from thence for Great Britain and Ireland; the officers there have been very buſy for ſome time paſt, and it is ſaid have ſeized two boats laden with tea near Wexford.

Letters from Hamburgh mention, that upwards of one hundred thouſand trading Jews have actually evacuated the dominions of Poland ſince the acceſſion of his preſent Majeſty to the crown.

When his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York was at Amſterdam, he went by invitation, to the German Jews Synagogue, where the 45th pſalm was ſung by five men with exceeding fine voices, and prayers were offered up for the Royal Family of Great Britain. It being their cuſtom to pray for all thoſe potentates who proteſt them, and omit thoſe in whoſe dominions they ſuffer perſecution.

JULY 3.

It is confidently reported that ſeveral alterations and removals will take place before the expiration of the preſent week, but that none of the old miniſtry are to be included therein.

We hear that a great perſonage went laſt Saturday afternoon incog. to Claremont, in Surry, where he ſtaid near two hours, after which he returned to Richmond.

Yeſterday morning the Right Hon. William Pitt, Eſq; ſet out from his ſeat at Hayes, for Dorſetſhire, for the ſummer ſeaſon.

It is ſingular that for ſome time the French have not attempted to improve their ſettlement at Cayenne in America; but on ſome neighbouring iſlands called the Triangles, they have encamped 6000 ſoldiers, compleatly armed; and as theſe iſlands produce nothing, but only ſand and rock, this encampment cannot be without ſome deſign: and there is the more reaſon to believe ſo, becauſe the French are indefatigable in forming there a very large magazine, and ſeveral contracts for that purpoſe, have been made with our ſubjects in North America; who, it is feared, from cauſes which are too well known, are determined to have as little dealings with their mother country as poſſible.

It is certain that ſince the peace application has been made to the court of Vienna for a certain number of troops to proteſt the electorate of Hanover; and, it is ſaid, the anſwer was, that Auſtria could not think of entering into a freſh war with Pruſſia.—Quere, Whoſe ſyſtem of continental politics was this?

We hear that an account of the ſtate and number of manufactures in his Majeſty's province of New-York, was laid before the laſt board of treaſury.

Monday capt. Williams, of the royal regiment of artillery, ſet out for Plymouth to take the command of three companies of the ſaid regiment, bound to America.

JULY 5.

A grand Council was to be held this day; and the following alterations, among others (how true time muſt diſcover) are talked of:

Marquis of Rockingham, firſt Lord of treaſury.
Duke of Grafton, and Earl of Egmont, Secretaries of State.
Lord Winchelſea, firſt Lord of the Admiralty.
Hon. Charles Yorke, Lord Chancellor.
Chief Juſtice Pratt, a Peer.
Sir George Saville, and Mr. Dowdeſwell, Lords of the Treaſury.
Hon. Charles Townſhend, chancellor of Exchequer.
Lord Hertford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.
Marquis of Rockingham, to go to Paris.
General Conway, ſecretary of war.
Lord George Sackville, treaſurer of the navy.
Duke of Newcaſtle, preſident of the council.
Earl of Bedborough, to go to the poſt-office.
The preſent chamberlain, receiver-general.

His royal highneſs the Duke of Cumberland is expected in town, this day, to aſſiſt in council.

It is ſtrongly reported, that ſome capital ſhips of war will ſoon be ordered to ſail for the Mediterranean, where, it is ſaid, there will be two ſeparate ſquadrons. Commodore Edgecombe, in the Hero man of war at Plymouth, is expected to hoiſt his flag on this occaſion.

It is whiſpered, that diſpatches of importance are preparing to be ſent off to the governors of Gibraltar and Port Mahon.

They adviſe from Gibraltar, that the whole naval force of the Corſican malecontents at preſent conſiſts of nine armed xebecks, five tartans, ſix row gallies, and three twenty gun ſhips, purchaſed from the Engliſh; but they are not above one third fit for ſervice, for want of ſhip carpenters, ſeamen, and ſtores.

Commiſſions are gone over to caſt a quantity of gold and ſilver prize-medals, for the uſe of the new ſociety for the encouragement of arts and agriculture in New York.

Laſt night a quarrel happened between two great perſonages at the Weſtend of the town, about the expected change in the miniſtry; but, by the timely interpoſition of friends, it was made up without being attended with any fatal conſequences.

This week Robert Charles, Eſq; Agent for the City and Province of New York, received particular diſpatches from the Aſſembly of that Province, which, we hear, are to be laid in the nature of an appeal before the next committee of the Lords of Treaſury.

New Advertiſements.

A QUARTERLY meeting of the St. GEORGE's SOCIETY will be held on Wedneſday the 25th inſt. at the houſe of Mr. Daniel Cannon, in Charles-Town, where the members are deſired to attend preciſely at eleven o' clock

By order of the ſociety,
CHARLES WOODMASON, Secretary.

Jonathan Sarrazin,

Jeweller, at the Tea Kettle and lamps, the corner of Broad and Church-Street,

TAKES this method of acquainting Mr. Petrie's, and his own friends and cuſtomers, that he has bought Mr. Petrie's ſtock on hand, conſiſting of a great variety of ſterling plate and jewellery; moſt of which has been but a few months in the province, all bought of the beſt hands for ready money, and moſt elegantly finiſhed; which, together with a large aſſortment he himſelf has imported in the Beaufain, captain Curling, and the Mary, capt. Glazonby, he flatters himſelf he can ſell as cheap as any one in the province. He expects in the Union, captain Smith, another large aſſortment of jewellery and plate, and as he propoſes to keep up a conſtant ſupply, by every opportunity, of the moſt faſhionable articles, he hopes for the favour of Mr. Petrie's, and the continuance of his own friends cuſtom, which ſhall be gratefully acknowledged. He has ſent to him, a number of diamond rings, to diſpoſe of on commiſſion, which he will ſell together for coſt and charges, or ſeparate, at a ſmall advance for caſh. All kinds of jewellery and ſilverſmith's work done at his ſhop, as uſual, and with the greateſt diſpatch: where the higheſt price is given for old plate and jewels.

To be Sold,

By GEORGE LIVINGSTON,

THE plantation or tract of land, known by the name of the DISTILLERY, about four miles from Charles-Town, by water, pleaſantly ſituated on a bold Creek, containing, by a ſurvey made by the late Mr. William Wilkins, 795 acres.

There are on ſaid land three tarpy-buildings, one of which is near 90 feet long, and 41 wide, the other two about 30 by 20 wide; a pretty good dwelling-houſe, large barn and other out-houſes, two vats of new indico vats, a lime vat and pump, two dams of water, one of which containing about ten acres, is near to, and almoſt joins the largeſt of the tarpy-buildings.

This plantation was bought of Doctor Samuel Carne, with a large corn-mill, two iron ones, and other implements for diſtilling, and [illegible] the ſame manner as when bought: Not more than one hundred and thirty acres of the land is cleared, about eighty of which [illegible] new fence.

The ſaid plantation is very convenient to the Market, [illegible] freſh water on it, and a large ſummer range.

William Waldren,

STAY-MAKER, from LONDON:

BEGS leave to inform the public, That he has open'd a ſhop in King-ſtreet, between Mrs. Clifford's and Mr. Mears's where he intends carrying on his buſineſs in all its branches.——Thoſe Ladies that ſhall be pleaſed to employ him, may depend on having their work done in the beſt and neateſt manner, in the neweſt faſhions now wore in London, with the quickeſt diſpatch, and as reaſonably as any in the province.

JOSEPH HUTCHINS, Factor,

HAVING been informed, that the co-partner of a late SOLICITED FACTOR, has ſolicited ſome of his country friends for their cuſtom, and inſinuated that he had dropt, or was about to decline, the Factors Buſineſs: He thinks it proper to acquaint all his friends, particularly thoſe in the country, that ſuch inſinuations are ABSOLUTELY FALSE; that he ſtill does, and intends to, carry on the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its branches, as he heretofore has done, and that he will continue to exert his utmoſt endeavours for his employers intereſt.

At the ſame time, he begs leave to return his thanks to all who have hitherto favoured him with their commands; and as he is a piece of a ſeaman, and always looked upon plain ſailing to be the ſafeſt and ſureſt in navigation, ſo in life, or the buſineſs of it, he would adviſe the ſoliciting gentleman to ſteer a more ſteady courſe in future.

Lately imported from London,

AN aſſortment of the beſt London made cordage, anchors, grapnals, oakum, ſail cloth of all numbers, oſnabrugs, jugs of white wine vinegar, and linſeed oil, ſome genteel riding chairs with harneſſes, &c. compleat, a few dozen of very handſome mahogany claw feeted chairs, Windſor ditto, deſks and ornamented book caſes, cheſts of drawers, tea tables, &c. the whole of the cabinet ware is finiſhed in the compleateſt manner. CHARLES-TOWN, August 31, 1765.

LETTERS from London, of a late date, advise, that George Saxby, Esq; is appointed commissioner for the stamp-duties in this province.

This evening the general assembly of this province was dissolved by proclamation.

The schooner Friendship, Samuel Field master, of and from Jamaica, for Providence, was lost on the Colorados, the 23d of last month the crew got to Havana, in their boat, and were brought here by Capt. Craig, who arrived last Sunday.

Mr. Bartram, his Majesty's botanist for North-America, who arrived here some time ago from Philadelphia, has since been to North-Carolina and returned here; and on Thursday last he set out, accompanied by his son (who is an excellent draughtsman) for Georgia, and East and West Florida, intending also to go as far back of those countries, as the Indian nations may permit him.

Mr. Richard Wayne (co-partner of Mr. Edward Davies, merchant here) Mr. Thomas Rogers, merchant, of St. Augustine, Ensign Wright of his Majesty's 60th regiment, Mr. Loake, Mr. Robert Waring and family, &c. are just arrived here in the ship Union, captain Smith, from London.

On Thursday last past'd by this bar, and was spoke with by capt. Chisne, of the Jane from Antigua, the ship Friendship, capt. Samuel Ball, jun. from London. BENJAMIN BARONS, Esq; post-master-general for the southern district of North-America, and his family, are said to be on board this ship.

The ship Jenny, Capt. James Yeoman, of and for Hull, from Cape-Fear, put into this port last Monday, very leaky. She left Cape-Fear the 21st, the 23d sprung a leak, and had six feet water in her hold; when, being water-logg'd, and she could not be bro't to steer, the people on board prepar'd and were on the point of quitting her, till a sudden squal wore and put her before the wind, by which means they happily brought her in here.

The schooner General Barrington, Murdoch M'Iver, master, of and for Jamaica from this port, we hear, was lately lost on the Caimano's.

FOR Freight or Passage agree with said Master, or BRAWTON & SMITH.

Thomas Pike,

TAKES this opportunity of returning thanks to his friends, for their past favours; and can only add that he will make it his chief study to merit a continuance of them by a particular care and assiduity of instructing his pupils in the real and true method of DANCING.

Ladies or Gentlemen may be instructed very expeditiously on moderate terms in ORCHESOGRAPHY, (or the art of dancing by characters and demonstrative figures, wherein the whole art is explained with complete tables of all the steps used in dancing); the utility of which method is very well known in Europe, as they are thereby enabled to detect all pretenders to that science.

He continues to teach dancing at his long room, in the Orange garden, Tradd-street, on Thursdays and Saturdays for his day-scholars.

He intends opening the school for teaching the small sword on Friday the 20th instant, where attendance will be given every morning from seven to nine o' clock at the same places where grown gentlemen are instructed in dancing every evening after six o' clock.

He attends the boarding schools on Mondays Wednesdays and Fridays.

N. B. The ball is fixed for the latter end of November.

David & John Deas,

Have just imported in the Union, Capt. James Smith, from London,

A FRESH SUPPLY of European and East-India GOODS, amongst which are several articles of useful and ornamental CHINA, superfine HYSON and SOUCHONG teas, &c. &c. To be sold on moderate terms, at their store on the bay.

 A good assortment of BROAD CLOTH, and strip'd duffils, and low-priced woollen plains. 99—04

A YOUNG, healthy WET-NURSE to be hired. Enquire of the printer.

THE subscriber intending to remove his goods to Georgia, will sell his valuable plantation in St. Peter's parish, containing one thousand seven hundred and eight acres of land, fit for corn, rice, or indico, on which are two settled plantations, with a barn, good corn house, overseers house, and a new Dutch roofed house framed of good yellow pine, with three setts of new indico vatts, about one hundred and seventy acres of the rice land is now cleared and under good fence, with a large reservoir of water, capable of being made one of the best in the province, on which a machine for pounding of rice may be erected. The crop now on the land is a sufficient recommendation of its quality. Any person inclinable to purchase the same, may treat with me on the said plantation. 8w CORNELIUS O'BRIEN.

Alexander Leazmonth,

Tanner and currier, at his tan-yard, near Lamboll's bridge,

RETURNS his thanks to all such as have been pleased to favour him with their custom: he hopes for the continuance of their favours, and assures them of being served on the most reasonable terms, and with the greatest dispatch, as he has lately got from home a thorough bred currier and tanner, so that when people call for leather, they may not be disappointed.

He has for sale, tann'd and curried leather of all kinds, also white leather by the dozen or larger quantity, sold cheaper than any can be imported. Any person wanting negro shoes, black or russet, may have what number they please, by giving timely notice, and sending in their measures.

Two very neat riding chairs for sale, also a parcel of saddles and bridles, boots, mens and womens shoes, &c. to be sold on a small advance, to any person who will take the whole.

A negro shoe-maker, who is a good hand, may have six months constant work.

N. B. Wanted immediately, to be landed at Mr. Lamboll's bridge, fifteen or twenty cords of good bark, for which the cash will be given. 99—04

Brought to the Work-House,

August 27. A young new negro fellow, named Prince, of the Mandingo country, can't tell his master's name, has on osnabrugs frock and trowsers, filed teeth, the back of his left hand burnt with fire in his own country.
